COURSES

Language Requirement

Courses at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne are taught in French. Depending on the study cycle and the field of study, some courses may also be taught in English and in Spanish. Students are expected to have at least a B2-level in the language of instruction. A language certificate, or a letter from a French/English/Spanish language teacher, will be asked.

Learning Agreement

In order to fill in their Learning Agreement, students can choose courses from the list of courses open to the exchange students. In each department, an international relations delegate teacher is in charge of helping incoming exchange students for any questions about courses. Here are their names and email addresses.

ORIENTATION WEEK

Every year leading up to the start of the fall semester (semester one) in September and the start of the spring semester (semester two) in January, orientation weeks are held for incoming students. Students will be asked to fill out an application form online that will be sent to them prior to their arrival as places are limited.

ACCOMMODATION

Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne has some accommodation units allocated to exchange students. However the university does not have enough accommodation to meet all demand and can therefore not guarantee any student with an offer of university accommodation.

More information about accommodation here.
