

Arizona Revised Statutes (updated 2020 (the 54th Legislature, 2nd Regular Session))

Title 47 - Uniform Commercial Code

Chapter 4A FUNDS TRANSFERS

47-4A507. Choice of law

A. The following rules apply unless the affected parties otherwise agree or subsection C applies:

1. The rights and obligations between the sender of a payment order and the receiving bank are governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the receiving bank is located.
2. The rights and obligations between the beneficiary's bank and the beneficiary are governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the beneficiary's bank is located.
3. The issue of when payment is made pursuant to a funds transfer by the originator to the beneficiary is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the beneficiary's bank is located.

B. If the parties described in each paragraph of subsection A have made an agreement selecting the law of a particular jurisdiction to govern rights and obligations between each other, the law of that jurisdiction governs those rights and obligations, whether or not the payment order or the funds transfer bears a reasonable relation to that jurisdiction.

C. A funds-transfer system rule may select the law of a particular jurisdiction to govern rights and obligations between participating banks with respect to payment orders transmitted or processed through the system or the rights and obligations of some or all parties to a funds transfer any part of which is carried out by means of the system. A choice of law made to govern rights and obligations between participating banks with respect to payment orders transmitted or processed through the system is binding on participating banks. A choice of law made to govern the rights and obligations of some or all parties to a funds transfer any part of which is carried out by means of the system is binding on the originator, other sender, or a receiving bank having notice that the funds-transfer system might be used in the funds transfer and of the choice of law by the system when the originator, other sender or receiving bank issued or accepted a payment order. The beneficiary of a funds transfer is bound by the choice of law if, when the funds transfer is initiated, the beneficiary has notice that the funds-transfer system might be used in the funds transfer and of the choice of law by the system. The law of a jurisdiction selected pursuant to this subsection may govern, whether or not that law bears a reasonable relation to the matter in issue.

D. In the event of inconsistency between an agreement under subsection B and a choice-of-law rule under subsection C, the agreement under subsection B prevails.

E. If a funds transfer is made by use of more than one funds-transfer system and there is inconsistency between choice-of-law rules of the systems, the matter in issue is governed by the law of the selected jurisdiction that has the most significant relationship to the matter in issue.

Chapter 5 LETTERS OF CREDIT

47-5116. Choice of law and forum

A. The liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction chosen by an agreement in the form of a record signed or otherwise authenticated by the affected parties in the manner provided in section 47-5104 or by a provision in the person's letter of credit, confirmation or other undertaking. The jurisdiction whose law is chosen need not bear any relation to the transaction.

B. Unless subsection A of this section applies, the liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the person is located. The person is considered to be located at the address indicated in the person's undertaking. If more than one address is indicated, the person is considered to be located at the address from which the person's undertaking was issued. For the purpose of jurisdiction, choice of law and recognition of interbranch letters of credit, but not enforcement of a judgment, all branches of a bank are considered separate juridical entities and a bank is considered to be located at the place where its relevant branch is considered to be located under this subsection.

C. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser is governed by any rules of custom or practice, such as the uniform customs and practice for documentary credits, to which the letter of credit, confirmation or other undertaking is expressly made subject. If this chapter would govern the liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser under subsection A or B of this section, the relevant undertaking incorporates rules of custom or practice, and there is conflict between this article and those rules as applied to that undertaking, those rules govern except to the extent of any conflict with the nonvariable provisions specified in section 47-5103, subsection C.

D. If there is conflict between this chapter and chapter 3, 4, 4A or 9 of this title, this chapter governs.

E. The forum for settling disputes arising out of an undertaking within this article may be chosen in the manner and with the binding effect that governing law may be chosen in accordance with subsection A of this section.

Chapter 8 INVESTMENT SECURITIES

47-8110. Applicability; choice of law

A. The local law of the issuer's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection D, governs:

1. The validity of a security;
2. The rights and duties of the issuer with respect to registration of transfer;
3. The effectiveness of registration of transfer by the issuer;
4. Whether the issuer owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security; and
5. Whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom transfer of a certificated or uncertificated security is registered or a person who obtains control of an uncertificated security.

B. The local law of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection F, governs:

1. Acquisition of a security entitlement from the securities intermediary;
2. The rights and duties of the securities intermediary and entitlement holder arising out of a security entitlement;
3. Whether the securities intermediary owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security entitlement; and
4. Whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person who acquires a security entitlement from the securities intermediary or a person who purchases a security entitlement or interest therein from an entitlement holder.

C. The local law of the jurisdiction in which a security certificate is located at the time of delivery governs whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom the security certificate is delivered.

D. "Issuer's jurisdiction" means the jurisdiction under which the issuer of the security is organized or, if permitted by the law of that jurisdiction, the law of another jurisdiction specified by the issuer. An issuer organized under the law of this state may specify the law of another jurisdiction as the law governing the matters specified in subsection A, paragraphs 2 through 5.

E. The following rules determine a "securities intermediary's jurisdiction" for purposes of this section:

1. If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction for purposes of this article or this chapter, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

2. If paragraph 1 of this subsection does not apply and an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that the agreement is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

3. If neither paragraph 1 nor paragraph 2 of this subsection applies and an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that the securities account is maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

4. If none of the preceding paragraphs in this subsection applies, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the entitlement holder's account is located.

5. If none of the preceding paragraphs in this subsection applies, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which the chief executive office of the securities intermediary is located.

F. A securities intermediary's jurisdiction is not determined by the physical location of certificates representing financial assets, or by the jurisdiction in which is organized the issuer of the financial asset with respect to which an entitlement holder has a security entitlement, or by the location of facilities for data processing or other record keeping concerning the account.
