

NATIONAL RESEARCH
UNIVERSITY

— Review of —
Central and East European — Law —
brill.com/rela

Central and Eastern European Network of Legal Scholars

4th Annual CEENELS Conference

Legal Innovativeness in Central and Eastern Europe | Moscow, 14-15 June 2019

National Research University “Higher School of Economics”, Law Faculty, Moscow in collaboration with the University of Graz, Faculty of Law under the patronage of the Review of Central and Eastern European Law

Programme of the Parallel Sessions

14 June 2019 (Friday)

14 June 2019 (Friday)
14 ⁴⁵ – 16 ⁴⁵	Parallel Sessions 1
Session:	1.1: Legal Theory A	1.2: Byzantine Law (in Russian)	1.3: Legal Language (in Russian)	1.4: Legal History (in Russian) A
Room:	319a	323	326a	421
Chair:	Mikhail Antonov	Olga Akhrameeva	Anton Didikin	Anastasiya Tumanova
Speaker 1	Vladimir Isakov, Dmitry Poldnikov Higher School of Economics, Moscow The state of theoretical jurisprudence in Russia: perspective trends amidst post-Soviet legacy	Alexey Ovchinnikov Southern Federal University, Rostov-on-don Идея симфонии властей в византийском государственно-правовом наследии России.	Natallia Kovkel Belarusian State Economic University Contemporary semiotics of law: problematic choice of major concepts and definition of paradigms / Современная семиотика права: проблемы выбора основных концептов и определения парадигмы	Konstantin Krakovski Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration European influence and domestic creativity in the formation of the judiciary in Russia (mid 19th century) / Европейское влияние и отечественное творчество в формировании судебной власти в России (середина XIX в.).
Speaker 2	Piotr Szymaniec Angelus Silesius University of Applied Sciences in Wałbrzych Polish sociology of law of 1960s. An attempt of innovative view on "science of law"	Vadim Pavlov Academy of the Ministry of the Interior, Minsk Особенности светско-церковного синтеза в правовой системе Византии	Simeon Groysman Sofia University "St. Kliment Ohridski" Supremacy of Rights and Its Difficult Implementation in the Balkans / Верховенство права и трудности его реализации на Балканах	Kirill Solovyov Institute of Russian History, Russian Academy of Sciences Representative power in Russia in the beginning of the 20th century: European traditions and Russian innovations / Представительная власть в России в начале XX в.: европейские традиции и российские новации
Speaker 3	Rafał Mańko University of Amsterdam The innovativeness of the legal theory of Artur Kozak (1960-2009)	Aleksandar Đorđević University of Niš Градски закон как пример рецепции римско-византийского права в славянских государствах	Vladislav Turanin Belgorod State University Legal Terminology Phenomenon in the Context of Modern Legal System Evolution / Феномен юридической терминологии в контексте эволюции современной правовой системы	Alexander Safonov Higher School of Economics, Moscow Freedom of Conscience in the Context of the Ideas of European and Russian Jurisprudence at the Beginning of the 20th century / Институт свободы совести в контексте идей европейской и российской юриспруденции начала XX в.
Speaker 4	Alexandra Mercescu West University of Timișoara "Originality" in Law: Its Ontology, Its Politics	Andrei Seregin Southern Federal University, Rostov-on-Don Цивилизационный феномен византийско-славянской правовой системы		Bulat Nazmutdinov Higher School of Economics, Moscow Political and legal views of Russian Eurasians on the problem of separation of powers / Политические и правовые взгляды русских евразийцев на проблему разделения властей
Discussion (30 minutes)

14 June 2019 (Friday)

14 ⁴⁵ – 16 ⁴⁵
Parallel Sessions 1 (continued)
Session:	1.5: Courts A	1.6: Constitutionalism A	1.7: Public Law A	1.8: “Immunity” and “Resistance” within Administrative Praxis
Room:	518	424	508	422
Chair:	Maria Filatova	Irina Alebastrova	Lucian Bojin	Victoria Umanskaya; Jakub Firlus
Speaker 1	Marko Bratković University of Zagreb Interpretational statements of the supreme court as a (binding) source of law	Petr Agha Director, Centre for Law and Policy, Czech Academy of Sciences Constitutional Designs in the Wake of Populism	Damjan Možina University of Ljubljana Expansion of state liability in post-socialist Slovenia	Hanna Knysiak-Sudyka Jagiellonian University, Kraków Administrative mediation – perspective of negotiated decision-making process under Polish law
Speaker 2	Jan Zobec Supreme Court of the Republic of Slovenia The Failed Transition of the Third Branch – the Case of Slovenia	Adam Sulikowski University of Wrocław Illiberal democracy – concept and perspectives of expansion in Central and Eastern Europe	Przemyslaw Tacik Jagiellonian University, Kraków A Revival of Inoperative Law? Central-Eastern European Neo-Authoritarianism and Illiberal Legality	Marta Romańska Jagiellonian University, Kraków The system of means of challenge in administrative proceedings assessed in the light of the principle effectiveness and non-competitiveness (of reference to EU law, Polish law and ECHR case law)
Speaker 3	Magdalena Michalska Jagiellonian University, Kraków The principle of proportionality in Polish and ECHR judiciary in comparative perspective	Alexandra Troitskaya Moscow State University The phenomenon of East European Constitutionalism in comparative perspective	Aiste Mickonyte, Benedikt Harzl University of Graz Armenia caught between (in-)compatible legal orders: Paths of competitive and cumulative integration	Jakub Grzegorz Firlus Jagiellonian University, Kraków Administrative appeals in 21st century – obsolete prelitigation stage of administrative justice or proper alternative for court dispute over legality of administrative action
Speaker 4			Wojciech Ciszewski Jagiellonian University, Kraków Conscientious exemptions and the incontestability criterion	Agata Cebera Jagiellonian University, Kraków Prosecutor’s participation in administrative process – common European standard derived from Lenin’s works’
Discussion (30 minutes)

14 June 2019 (Friday)

17 ⁰⁰ – 19 ⁰⁰ Parallel Sessions 2
Session:	2.1: Constitutionalism B	2.2: Legal Theory B	2.3: Public Law B	2.4: Courts B
Room:	319a	323	326a	518
Chair:	Adam Sulikowski	Anita Soboleva	Josef Marko	Alan Uzelac
Speaker 1	Anna Aleksandrova Penza State University The phenomenon of social rights in the constitutional law in the countries of Central and Eastern Europe	Tomasz Bekrycht University of Łódź Theories of Legal Interpretation in Polish Legal Studies	Marianna Muravyeva University of Helsinki One Slap is Not the End of the World': Defining Family Violence in the Courtroom	Maria Filatova Higher School of Economics, Moscow Judicial law-making in Eastern and Central Europe: New Judicial Methodology?
Speaker 2	Bartłomiej Ślemp University of Warsaw Horizontal equalisation and other instruments reducing or eliminating differences in the financial capacity of local government – constitutions' provisions and jurisprudence of constitutional courts of selected CEE countries	Lucian Bojin West University of Timișoara Legal acculturation and domestic creativity through lawyers' practice in post-1989 Romania	Yulia Khalikova Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences Anton Kazun Higher School of Economics, Moscow Gender inequality among attorneys in Russia	Kinga Drewniowska University of Wrocław The role of constitutional court in democratic state based on the rule of law – analysis after (un)constitutional changes in Poland
Speaker 3	Alexander Gorskiy University of Tübingen The requirement of the federal homogeneity in the modern Russian Constitution: Between the German and Austrian examples	Markéta Štěpáníková Masaryk University, Brno Informal authorities in the process of legal drafting	Anna Demenko, Michał Urbańczyk Mickiewicz University in Poznań Politically correct hate speech	Maxim Sorokin National Institute for Entrepreneurship Research, Russia Russia: the paradox of legislative role of the judicial power
Speaker 4	Ksenia Eggert KU Leuven / Higher School of Economics, Moscow Politics behind blasphemy: «anti-blasphemy» law in Russia, case law of EctHR and relevant context		Piotr Eckhardt Jagiellonian University, Kraków The institution of the construction planning permit as an example of legal innovativeness in implementing neoliberalism in post-socialist Poland	Agnieszka Skóra University of Warmia and Mazury Electronic administrative courts and electronic administration in Poland – traditions and new challenges. How to change the Polish mentality and prejudice?
Discussion (30 minutes)

14 June 2019 (Friday)

17 ⁰⁰ – 19 ⁰⁰
Parallel Sessions 2 (continued)
Session:	2.5: Legal History A	2.6: Criminal Law	2.7: Private Law A	2.8: Legal Theory C
Room:	422	424	428	325
Chair:	Alexander Vorobiev	Gleb Bogush	Rafał Mańko	Dmitriy Poldnikov
Speaker 1	Adrian A. Selin Higher School of Economics, St. Petersburg Novgorod the Great Court Instances in 1584-1616	Monika Czechowska University of Wrocław The Polish institution of the crown witness modelled on American, Italian and German solutions – as an example for the originality of the countries of CEE in the acquisition of legal institutions from abroad (the phenomenon of legal acculturation)	Emod Veress Sapientia Hungarian University of Transylvania From dualism to monism in private law. An innovative Romanian approach: hybridisation	Tomasz Guzik Jagiellonian University Behavioural Economics in Legal Applications. Critical analysis
Speaker 2	Elena Borodina Institute of History and Archaeology, Ural brunch of Russian Academy of Sciences Legal practices in Kungur district in 1720-1730s: land use and land tenure among peasantry	Imre Otto Nemeth Eötvös Loránd University Overcriminalization: the Fall of Criminal Law Dogmatics	Jarosław Turfukowski University of Warsaw Testamentary gifts in Polish lands: from origins till present day	Wojciech Zomerski CLEST, University of Wrocław Polish Legal Theory on the Cusp. Towards the Post-Analytic Theory of Law?
Speaker 3	Alice Plate Ural Federal University named after the first President of Russia B.N. Yeltsin Estate justice of Catherine the Great: judicial activity of peasants in the Urals in 1780-1790s	Irina Chashchina Higher School of Economics, Moscow Christina Kulakova Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München (LMU) Legal Authenticity and legal Innovativeness in Central and Eastern Europe. The use of restorative justice for Germany	Antun Bilić University of Zagreb Executory debenture – an instrument of Croatian law on Crossroads between Private and Public, Procedural and Substantive	Vladimir Churakov Higher School of Economics, Moscow Big Data as the Innovative Method in Law Science
Speaker 4		Maxim Karljuk Higher School of Economics, Moscow Against Punishment
Discussion (30 minutes)

15 June 2019 (Saturday)

11 ⁴⁵ – 13 ⁴⁵
Parallel Sessions 3
Session:	3.1: Legal Theory D	3.2: Legal History B	3.3: Private Law B	3.4: International Law
Room:	323	325	518	421
Chair:	Piotr Szymaniec	Marianna Muravyeva	Lucian Bojin	Vladislav Starzhenetsky
Speaker 1	Anton Didikin, Higher School of Economics, Moscow Speech Acts and Actions in Legal Language: Conceptual Analysis	Elena Marasinova Higher School of Economics, Moscow Moratorium on the Death Penalty in Russia 18th Century: the Influence of the Ideas of the Enlightenment or of the Orthodox Faith	Konstantin Totyev Higher School of Economics, Moscow Principle of legality as the context of business transaction invalidity due to non-compliance with the public law requirements of economic legislation	Emilia Mišćenić University of Rijeka Bilateral investment treaties and But in Central and Eastern Europe: Croatian Perspective’.
Speaker 2	Anita Soboleva Higher School of Economics, Moscow Interpretation in absence of canons: can topical approach help?	Aaron Retish Wayne State University, Detroit Rule of Law, Living Law, and Revolutionary Consciousness in Soviet Russia: Legal Innovations of the Local People’s Courts, 1917-1922	Sandra Brožová University of Economics in Prague The nature and legal effects of shareholders agreements in Czech and Slovak private law and its interpretation	Velimir Zivkovic KFG, International Rule of Law Serbian Bilateral Investment Treaties – (Why the) Lacking Legal Innovativeness?
Speaker 3	Alexander Petrov Siberian Federal University, Krasnoyarsk The Formal Priority of Codes: the rise and fall of a concept with the Eastern European origin	Evgeny Tikhonravov Siberian Federal University, Krasnoyarsk Krystyna Marek’s contribution to the concept of non-recognition of territorial annexation	Ionuț Tudor independent researcher, Romania Reconsidering the commons – „obșteă” as an alternative way of organizing property	Hugo Flavier Bordeaux University Differentiated integration and EAEU
Speaker 4		Laura Gheorghiu University of Graz David Mitrany’s functionalism in the interwar and today	Ewa Matejkowska Jagiellonian University, Kraków The Idea of Corporate Social Responsibility as a Challenge for Polish Law	Daria Boklan Higher School of Economics, Moscow Effectiveness of adaptation as a response to the threat of climate change: Russian approach
Discussion (30 minutes)

15 June 2019 (Saturday)

11⁴⁵ – 13⁴⁵

Parallel Sessions 3 (continued)

Session:	3.5: Legal Theory E (in Russian)	3.6: New Challenges	3.7: International Courts
Room:	423	429	508
Chair:	Vladimir Isakov	Rafał Mańko	Zdeněk Kühn
Speaker 1	Sergei Kasatkin Samara Academy of Humanities, Samara Cultural Parameters of Legal Theory: Universalism vs. Parochialism / Культурные параметры теории права: универсализм или партикуляризм	Maria Kapustina St. Petersburg State University, St.Petersburg Russian Information Security Doctrine: Legal Continuity and Legal Innovativeness in the Information Sphere'	Yulia Khalikova International Graduate School of Social Sciences, Bremen Tale of Two Courts: Interaction between the Russian Constitutional Court and the European Court of Human Rights
Speaker 2	Yury Arzamasov Higher School of Economics, Moscow Correlation between normography, jurisprudence, and legal linguistics' / Соотношение нормографии, легиспруденции и юридической лингвистики	István Ambrus Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest Whistleblowing – theoretical and practical issues	Balazs Jozsef Geller Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest The Principle of ne bis in idem in the Latest Judgments of the ECJ and How It May Influence the European Arrest Warrant System
Speaker 3	Aleksei Kartsov Constitutional court of the Russian Federation Legal transplants in Russian legal history: ideological aspects / Фактор рецепции в истории русского права: идеологические аспекты восприятия	Daria Chernyaeva Higher School of Economics, Moscow Development of legal grounds for genetic engineering: Russia in comparative context	Andrey Scherbovic, Mikhail Zverev Higher School of Economics, Moscow The impact of the decisions of the European Court of Human Rights on Russian case law
Speaker 4	Vasilii Tokarev Samara State Regional Academy, Samara Comparative law as a tool for the study, creation and application of law in the legal system of Russia / Сравнительное правоведение как инструмент изучения, создания и применения права в России.
Discussion (30 minutes)			